

Our club, the Santa Fe Dam Radio Control Modelers, is made up of people of all ages and backgrounds; all with a common interest in the hobby and sport of radio-controlled model aircraft. This club has been continuously active since 1977. It is chartered by the Academy of Model Aeronautics. Members fly at the club's limited access site located within the Santa Fe Dam Recreation Area near the junction of the 605 and 210 freeways in Duarte, California. If you are interested in joining our club, why not visit the field or come to a monthly club meeting? Or, if you have any questions, give one of our club officers a call.

Do You Need a Little (or a Lot of) Help or Just Questions?

The Santa Fe Dam Radio Control Modelers welcomes anyone with an interest in Radio Control Aircraft (including electric and helicopters) regardless of their skill level.

Our club has a number of people who volunteer their time as instructors to help novice RC pilots. If you are new to flying, we recommend you contact one of the club officers. We recommend you do this before you buy an aircraft or any equipment so you have the best chance of being successful.

I understand that safety, preservation of our flying site, and congeniality among members and with the public are vital concerns. I have read the SFDRCM Safety and Field Rules and the AMA Safety Code, and I understand and agree to comply with them as well as with applicable AMA Documents, and FAA regulations. I realize that violating these rules are grounds for termination of my club membership and its privileges.
